A WEEKLY REVIEW OF LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND ART.

No. 204.
[New Issue.]

SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1876.

PRICE 3d.
[Registered as a Newspaper.]

CHATTO & WINDUS, PUBLISHERS.

Demy 8vo, cloth extra, with Maps and Illustrations, 18s.
CLOUDS IN THE EAST:
Travels and Adventures on the Perso-Turkoman Frontier.
By VALENTINE BAKER.
"A most graphic and lively account of travels and adventures which have nothing of the commonplace about them."—Leeds Mercury.

Demy 8vo, cloth extra, with Maps and Illustrations, 18s.
THE GREAT DIVIDE:
A Narrative of Travels in the Upper Yellowstone in the Summer of 1874. By the EARL OF DUNRAVEN.
With numerous striking full-page Illustrations, by VALENTINE W. BROMLEY.

"There has not for a long time appeared a better book of travel than Lord Dunraven's 'The Great Divide.' The book is full of clever observation, and both narrative and illustrations are thoroughly good."—Athenaeum.
"A jolly, rollicking narrative of adventure and sport, mixed up with a great deal of useful information concerning one of the most interesting regions in the American continent."—Nature.
"The narrative is very lively and picturesque, and the story of Lord Dunraven's adventures is as full of interest as a novel. We congratulate Lord Dunraven on having written a clever, amusing book of travels, every page of which abounds in thoughtfulness, interest, and artistic descriptive power."—Daily Telegraph.
"There are passages in this book which approach closely to the verge of unadorned eloquence. Taken altogether, it is delightful reading."—Field.

Demy 8vo, cloth extra, with Maps and numerous Illustrations, 18s.
YACHTING IN THE ARCTIC SEAS:
Or, Notes of Five Voyages of Sport and Discovery in the Neighbourhood of Spitzbergen and Novaya Zemlya.
By JAMES LAMONT, F.G.S., F.R.G.S., Author of "Seasons with the Sea-Horses."
With numerous full-page Illustrations, by WILLIAM LIVESAY, M.D.
"After wading through numberless volumes of icy fiction, concocted narrative, and spurious biography of Arctic voyagers, it is pleasant to meet with a real and genuine volume. He shows much tact in recounting his adventures, and they are so interspersed with anecdotes and information as to make them anything but wearisome. The book, as a whole, is the most important addition made to our Arctic literature for a long time."—Athenaeum.

2 vols. 8vo, cloth extra, with Illustrations, 36s.
HAYDON'S CORRESPONDENCE and TABLE-TALK.
WITH A MEMOIR BY HIS SON, AND 23 Illustrations.
"There can, we think, be no question of its interest in a purely biographical sense, or of its literary merit. The letters and table-talk form in themselves a most valuable contribution to the social and artistic history of the time, and would be very welcome even without the memoir."—Pall Mall Gazette.

SECOND EDITION of MR. EMERSON'S NEW WORK.
Crown 8vo, cloth extra, price 7s. 6d.
LETTERS AND SOCIAL AIMS.
By RALPH WALDO EMERSON.
"It makes a pleasant companion to the volume he gave us a few years ago under the name of 'Society and Solitude,' and stands pretty much on the same footing. The enthusiastic and almost mystical ardour of his earlier essays is softened into a more genial and equable warmth, but if he sometimes wanders where he would once have soared, his path falls not to be illumined by the same bright and far-reaching imagination as of old."—Saturday Review.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra, price 7s. 6d.
SWIFT'S CHOICE WORKS,
IN PROSE AND VERSE.
With Memoir, Portrait, and Illustrations.
"Messrs. Chatto & Windus have issued in one volume the 'Choice Works of Dean Swift in Prose and Verse.' It has been, say the publishers, carefully reprinted from the original editions. It is as well that students should have an opportunity of making acquaintance with what Swift wrote, and this volume will help them to that end. It is handy in form and clearly printed."—Scotsman.

Small 8vo, cloth extra, 9s.
VICTORIAN POETS: Critical Essays.
By EDMUND CLARENCE STEDMAN.
"Mr. Stedman has treated a subject of great interest in a manner which is as attractive to the reader as it is just to the poets whom he has undertaken to criticise."—Spectator.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra, with Portrait, 9s.
JOSEPH AND HIS BRETHREN:
A Dramatic Poem. By CHARLES WELLS.
With Violoncello and Piano Accompaniment, by ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE.
"In its combination of strength and delicacy, in sweet liquid musical flow, in just cadence, and in dramatic incisiveness of utterance, the language throughout keeps closer to the level of the Elizabethan dramatists than that of any dramatist of subsequent times."—Athenaeum.

W. S. GILBERT.—Crown 8vo, cloth extra, 9s.
ORIGINAL PLAYS BY W. S. GILBERT.
"A Wicked World," "Charity," "Palace of Truth," "Pygmalion," "By Jury," &c.
"His workmanship is in its way perfect; it is very sound, very even, very well sustained, and excellently balanced throughout."—Observer.

CHATTO & WINDUS, PICCADILLY, W.

CHATTO & WINDUS, PUBLISHERS.

Demy 8vo, cloth extra, with Photographic Portrait and Illustrations, price 12s.
MEMORIALS of the late
Rev. ROBERT STEPHEN HAWKER,
Sometime Vicar of Morwenston, in the Diocese of Exeter.
By the Rev. FREDERICK GEORGE LEE, D.C.L., Vicar of All Saints', Lambeth.
With Portrait, Pedigree, and Illustrations.
"Dr. Lee's Memorials is a far better record of Mr. Hawker, and gives a more reverent and more true idea of the man. Dr. Lee rightly confines himself to his proper subject."—Athenaeum.

New Novels at all the Libraries.

Three vols. crown 8vo.
THE DEMOCRACY.
A Novel. By WHYTE THORNE.
"It is always difficult for anyone not personally concerned in English politics to write about them without making serious blunders; and even Mr. Trollope has not always succeeded in avoiding mistakes; but the author of the novel before us keeps clear of error, and writes pleasantly enough."—Athenaeum.

CREASY'S MEMOIRS OF EMINENT ETONIANS;
With Notices of the Early History of Eton College.
By Sir EDWARD CREASY, Author of "The Fifteen Decisive Battles of the World."
New and Enlarged Edition, brought down to the Present Time, with Illustrations.

"A new edition of 'Creasy's Etonians' will be welcome. The book was a favourite quarter of a century ago, and it has maintained its reputation. The value of this new edition is enhanced by the fact that Sir Edward Creasy has added to it several memoirs of Etonians who have died since the first edition appeared. The work is eminently interesting."—Scotsman.

Small 8vo, Roxburghe binding, price 10s. 6d.
THE FIRST EDITION OF SHAKESPEARE, 1623.

An exact reproduction of the rare original, in reduced facsimile, by a photographic process.

With an Introduction by J. O. HALLIWELL PHILLIPS, Esq.
"To Messrs. Chatto and Windus belongs the merit of having done more to facilitate the critical study of the text of our great dramatist than all the Shakspeare clubs and societies put together. A complete facsimile of the celebrated first folio edition of 1623 for half-a-guinea is at once a miracle of cheapness and enterprise. Being in a reduced form, the type is necessarily rather diminutive, but it is as distinct as in a genuine copy of the original, and will be found to be as useful and far more handy to the student than the latter."—Athenaeum.

WESTLAND MARSTON'S WORKS.
2 vols. crown 8vo, price 18s.
WESTLAND MARSTON'S
DRAMATIC AND POETICAL WORKS.
COLLECTED LIBRARY EDITION.

"The Patrician's Daughter is an oasis in the desert of modern dramatic literature, a real emanation of mind. We do not recollect any modern work in which states of thought are so freely developed except the Torquato Tasso of Goethe. The play is a work of art in the same sense that a play of Sophocles is a work of art; it is one simple idea in a state of gradual development. The Favourite of Fortune is one of the most important additions to the stock of English prose-comedy that has been made during the present century."—Times.

It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

WORKS

BY THE LATE

NORMAN MACLEOD, D.D.

PEEPS at the FAR EAST: a

Familiar Account of a Visit to India. With numerous Illustrations. Small 4to, cloth gilt extra, 21s.

"It would be difficult to point out in our popular literature a book which in anything like the same compass conveys so full or so instructive a knowledge of British India. With the same charm of companionship which won his way to the hearts of every class, Dr. Macleod seems to carry us with him, in a delightful round of travel and observation. The history of the past is interwoven with what now meets the traveller's eye in a way that never fatigues, while it richly instructs the reader; and his work has an inner depth and a philosophical value beyond that of a mere record of travel." Saturday Review.

EASTWARD: Travels in Egypt, Palestine, and Syria. With Illustrations. Third Thousand. Crown 8vo, 6s.

"This handsome volume is a novelty among books of travel. The genial manly spirit of the author gives a human colouring to every scene, and keeps awake in us, as we accompany him, an increasing sympathy." Daily News.

The EARNEST STUDENT; being

Memorials of John Mackintosh. Twentieth Thousand. Crown 8vo, 3s. 6d.

REMINISCENCES of a HIGHLAND PARISH. Third Thousand. Crown 8vo, 6s.

"One of the most refreshing and delightful books which can anywhere be found. The impression which it makes is the nearest thing possible to the delight of wandering in fine autumn weather on the braesides of the mountains that look forth on the Islands and the Atlantic. And the reader will find in the book what the mere wanderer cannot see in nature—a rich storehouse of noble humanities." Scotsman.

The STARLING. With Illustrations. Fifth Edition, crown 8vo, 6s.

"Such a story as this, with the fine manly character of the Sergeant, ought, in these days of vile sensationalism, to be doubly welcomed." Westminster Review.

CHARACTER SKETCHES. With Illustrations. Third Edition, post 8vo, 6s.

"They are sure to be most welcome to all who can appreciate a broad, genial humanity, mingled with much pathos and a keen insight into the deeper workings of the human soul." Daily Telegraph.

WEE DAVIE. Fiftieth Thousand. Sewed, 6d.

The OLD LIEUTENANT and his SON. With Illustrations. Twelfth Thousand. Crown 8vo, 3s. 6d.

"We place 'The Old Lieutenant and his Son' in the very first rank of religious fiction." Daily News.

The GOLD THREAD. With Illustrations. Fourteenth Thousand. Square 8vo, 2s. 6d.

"This is one of the prettiest, as it is one of the best, children's books in the language. Wherever there are children, if our advice is taken, there will be a 'Gold Thread.'" Caledonian Mercury.

The TEMPTATION of OUR LORD. Crown 8vo, 5s.

PARISH PAPERS. Tenth Thousand. Crown 8vo, 3s. 6d.

"There is nothing narrow in sentiment, tame in thought, or prosy in style in these papers. Each paper is small in compass, but big with noble thoughts. It is just such a book as we should expect from an author whose Christianity is that of the Gospels rather than creeds, whose teaching is that of a Christ-loving man rather than that of a professional preacher, and whose nature is royal and not menial in its faculties and instincts." Homist.

SIMPLE TRUTHS SPOKEN to WORKING PEOPLE. Fifth Thousand. Small 8vo, 2s. 6d.

SIXTH THOUSAND.

NOW READY,

With Portraits and numerous Illustrations, 2 vols. demy 8vo, 26s.

MEMOIR OF NORMAN MACLEOD, D.D.

By his Brother, the Rev. DONALD MACLEOD, One of Her Majesty's Chaplains.

Times.

"We once more commend to our readers a work which is a fitting monument erected with the true self-forgetfulness of a loving brother and a faithful biographer, and which will leave the abiding impression that in Norman Macleod all who knew him mourn a devoted, gallant, and delightful friend, and his Church and country lost a magnificent champion of the good, the noble, and the true."

Daily News.

"The biographer's delicate duty has been performed with tact and good taste, and it is rare that one writing so soon after his hero's death is able to give so much completeness to his portrait."

Hour.

"An admirable piece of work; it will become a classic in Scotch literature, and we would fain hope that, if its English readers are less lavish of their enthusiasm, they may not be inferior in number to the Northern admirers."

Standard.

"The ecclesiastical or social historian in search of a key to the development of religious life and the broadening of religious thought in Scotland during the latter half of the present century, will find it to possess an enduring influence."

Pall Mall Gazette.

"Mr. Donald Macleod has done his work of compiling this memoir of his justly celebrated brother with care and good taste. The introductory chapters give an interesting glimpse of a state of life and manners that is now well nigh forgotten."

Spectator.

"A memoir worthy of the subject. It may well do for Scotland what Dr. Stanley's Life of Arnold did for England."

Athenaeum.

"There is throughout these volumes a freedom from cant and sentimentality that is rare in the biography of a popular divine."

Nonconformist.

"We are much mistaken if it does not take high rank among select biographies. It reveals a rich nature readily moved to fine issues. Humour, fun, waggle satire, sparkling fancy, pathetic touches, devout experiences, and fine insights go together; yet they never conflict—for the bond of a pure, self-denying nature runs through all. Mr. Donald Macleod has done his work well."

Inquirer.

"These volumes are deeply interesting. They reveal a truly noble character, whose work was devoted, with no ordinary gifts of mind and heart, to the best interests of the world."

Scotsman.

"The biographer has done his task well. He writes with a practised pen, and good sense and good taste pervade the volumes."

Edinburgh Courant.

"A hundred memoirs of him might have been written without giving completeness and unity to its diverse phases. This one, in which his memory is destined to be preserved, furnishes not only an affectionate, but a full and natural image of him."

Glasgow Herald.

"Thousands of readers will close these volumes with a greater respect and admiration for the subject of them than perhaps they previously entertained. The book is full of the spirit of a great and good man."

North British Daily Mail.

"The favourable impression made by a first reading is deepened by each subsequent examination of the work."

The LIFE of LORD PALMERSTON: 1846—1865.

By the Hon. EVELYN ASHLEY, M.P.

With Two Portraits.

From the WESTERN MORNING NEWS "Gossip."

"I understand that some novel-readers have taken alarm at the title of Mr. Stanley Hope's new tale, 'A NEW GODIVA.' They have done so quite unnecessarily. The book is free from the slightest approach to impropriety, and I only wish some of the novels that one sees in a good many drawing-rooms were equally free. Mr. Hope's story is wholly pure in tone, and is also full of interest. The opening and several other scenes are laid in Devonshire, and the writer describes them with the pen of one who is a true lover of nature as well as an artist. His heroine, Katie Price, the supposed gamekeeper's daughter, and who is at various periods of the story Lady Devereil and Mrs. Morley, is a charming creature, and great originality is shown in the incident which, though it gives the title and leads up to the catastrophe, occupies but a very small portion of the book. The hero also is drawn with plenty of vigour, though I am not sure how far a man so much above the average as he is could be such an utter fool with regard to money matters. Some of the minor characters, especially Mrs. Poindestre, also are very well drawn. But the tale is one of action rather than of character, and there is a rapid succession of stirring incidents, which keep up the interest to the end. I am not surprised to hear that the tale has been dramatised. 'A New Godiva' is full of situations which would do admirably on the stage."

A FAMILY TREE. By ALBANY DE FONBLANQUE, Author of 'Cut Adrift,' &c. In 3 vols., crown 8vo.

"The author's style is clear and vivid; he can contrive an interesting plot, and fill in the details with skill; he is picturesque and dramatic, and he shows much originality and discrimination in his conceptions of character."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"The autobiography is perfectly charming. It would be hard to find anywhere a more interesting picture of simple village life in Saxony at the beginning of the present century—a picture which contains no element of fiction, but records the touching experiences of a boy who was feeling, in company with his family, the stern pressure of honest poverty, while groping his way, almost unconsciously, towards the development of his inborn taste for art."—Guardian, March 29.

THE BAMPTON LECTURES FOR 1875.

Just published, in demy 8vo, price 10s. 6d., cloth.

The DOCTRINE OF RETRIBUTION. Eight

Lectures Preached before the University of Oxford, in the year 1875, on the foundation of the late Rev. JOHN BAMPTON, M.A., Canon of Salisbury. By the Rev. WILLIAM JACKSON, M.A., F.S.A., formerly Fellow of Worcester College, Author of 'The Philosophy of Natural Theology,' 'Positivism,' 'Right and Wrong,' &c.

From the SPECTATOR, March 18.

"In his Eight Lectures, which treat of the 'Subject in Perspective,' of the 'Answer of Conscience,' of 'Scepticism when Thorough,' of 'First Principles' (this, as we think, the ablest of all), of the 'Prerogative of Humanity,' of 'Man's Inner Law and Life,' of 'Growth, Trial, and Triumph,' of 'Absolute Truth,' and the Solemn Hereafter, Mr. Jackson has supplied us with one of the ablest defences of the Christian Faith, by his careful consideration of the human nature to which that Faith brings its message. We rise from his pages with a freshened and deepened sense of our responsibilities, our duties, and our hopes."

From the "LITERARY GUILDHALL," March 11:—

"Mr. Jackson's theorem is that the facts of our moral nature, taken along with the circumstances in which we are placed, point so unmistakably to a Retribution to come, that no reasonable man can do other than regard Retributive Justice as dominating our whole Future, so that Natural Religion is a necessary consequence upon Natural Theology. This is Mr. Jackson's one theme, and he views it in various aspects and pursues it through many stages. The lectures show an immense amount of philosophical reading and study, and might almost be described as an eloquent and able series of deductions from the main positions of Kant's philosophy. They abound in acute remarks and striking passages, and will richly repay careful and repeated study."

By the same Author.

The PHILOSOPHY OF NATURAL THEOLOGY. Demy 8vo., 12s.

"A very thoughtful and remarkable book. The present writer would stake here his critical reputation, whatever that may be worth, on the assertion that few of our day have done better service than Mr. Jackson, by furnishing as he does so many independent, but, in the end, consistent lines of argument which inevitably lead up to the conclusion that the law of nature and the conscience of man, who is yet a part of nature, must have had a rational and moral origin."—Spectator.
